Chief Adviser's Press Secretary Shafiqul Alam said Awami League, which was ousted through massive popular uprising, is carrying out a smear campaign against Chief Adviser Prof Dr Muhammad Yunus.

"Millions of dollars are being spent to depict Professor Yunus as a militant leader. Indian media is involved in this campaign. They are trying to convince the whole world that what happened in Bangladesh was not actually a mass uprising rather a big conspiracy," he said.

Shafiqul Alam was addressing the launching ceremony of a compilation book titled "Droher Graffiti: Chobisher Gono Obhyutthan" authored by Bangladesh Sangbad Sangstha (BSS) Deputy Chief News Editor GM Rajib Hossain at the Jatiya Press Club here today.

Shafiqul Alam described Sheikh Hasina as the "mother of thieves and queen of enforced disappearances" saying she and her cohorts want to challenge the narrative of Bangladesh.
