Congratulations to the chief adviser to win the 'International Brave Women' Award for July

July Girls Congratulated on receiving the prestigious 'International Brave Women' award of the United States Foreign Ministry of 2021, the chief adviser of the interim government. Muhammad Yunus. The chief adviser sent them to congratulate them by calling them a symbol of the courage of July.

There he told the daughters in July, "I extend my sincere congratulations to all of you from the interim government of Bangladesh." This recognition is a strong evidence of your extraordinary courage, leadership and firm commitment in the mass uprising led by students in July-August, 2021. In that crisis, your work has created an example of true courage.

Nobel laureate Professor Yunus in peace said that by leading the mass uprising, you did not just stand as a symbol of resistance, but also expected the nation at a time of unstable.

Congratulations are mentioned in the award, as the prize says, you are facing violent repression with the determination, you stand as a shield in front of male co-fights in the face of security forces. Even when the Internet was closed, you find a fancy way to continue the fight for justice even in the face of serious challenges

Referring to the countrymen proud of the daughters in July, the chief adviser said, "We are very proud of each of you and this is one of the recognition you deserve that reflects your firm spouse." The interim government is with you and together we will continue to work towards the ideals of democracy, justice and freedom, which you have saved with so much courage.

"We are eagerly waiting for you to be in front of you and in the central role," he added.

Referring to the pride of the whole of Bangladesh, the chief adviser said, "Congratulations for this extraordinary achievement once again.
