Chief Adviser Dr. Muhammad Yunus said that if the nation remains united, any evil force can be defeated. In a video message on the occasion of Durga Puja, he urged people to rise above divisions and work together to continue the journey toward building a corruption- and inequality-free nation.

Chief Adviser Dr. Muhammad Yunus, in a video message on Sunday (September 28) greeting the nation on the occasion of Durga Puja, said: “If we stay united, any evil force can be defeated. But if we remain divided, our progress as a nation will be obstructed.”

He further mentioned that the July mass uprising has initiated a journey toward building a society free of discrimination and corruption, and to make this movement successful, everyone must set aside differences and work collectively.

The Chief Adviser also added that the government and political parties are vigilant so that no attempt of sabotage or fear-mongering can disrupt the festival. He expressed his sincere gratitude to all those who are working tirelessly to ensure the smooth and peaceful celebration of Durga Puja.
