

Prime Bank offers banking services to its Grammar School

This initiative aims to ease financial services and enhance the banking experiences for institutions, teachers, students, and guardians. Prime Bank offers banking services to its Grammar School. Prime Bank PLC has signed an agreement with Prime Bank Grammar School to provide seamless banking services under its specialized segment 'primeacademia'.

The signing ceremony was recently held at Prime Bank's corporate office, attended by senior officials from these institutions. Through this partnership, students, teachers, guardians, and staff of Prime Bank Grammar School will gain access to a comprehensive suite of financial services tailored to meet their academic and institutional needs. Under Primeacademia, Prime Bank will offer a range of benefits, including fee collection, student-friendly loan facilities, payroll banking, advance salary drawing, attractive teachers account, student file opening, guardian's account, pre-approved credit card and digital banking services etc. This initiative aims to ease financial services and enhance the banking experiences for institutions, teachers, students, and guardians.

M Nazeem A Choudhury, deputy managing director of Prime Bank PLC, and Maj Gen Dr Md Nayeem Ashfaque Chowdhury (retd), chief executive officer of Prime Bank Foundation took part in signing ceremony on behalf of their respective organizations. Sujoy Kumar Biswas, chief finance officer & secretary of Prime Bank Foundation; Brig Gen ASM Mahmood Hasan (retd), project director of Prime Bank Hospital PLC (Proposed); Prof Maj MM Akhtaruzzaman (retd), principal of Prime Bank Grammar School; Shaila Abedin, head of liability, and MM Mahbub Hasan, head of financial inclusion & school banking along with senior officials were present at the event from Prime Bank PLC.