Death Sentence Verdict in Hasina-Kamal Crimes Case

Collected picture

The full death sentence verdict has been issued on Wednesday (26 November) in the crimes against humanity case filed against former Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina and former Home Minister Asaduzzaman Kamal.

With the publication of the verdict, the appeal period has commenced. According to the rules, the accused have the right to appeal the verdict in a higher court within 30 days.

More details to follow...

LENS ASIA