Sazek's fire: BGB's role in the control and rescue operation of the BGB

On Monday (February 26th), the BGB, Fire Service, the army and the locals came under control for about four and a half hours in the wake of the horrific fire in Rangamati.

On Monday (February 26th), the BGB, Fire Service, the army and the locals came under control for about four and a half hours in the wake of the horrific fire in Rangamati.

After the fire, the BGB quickly reached the spot and helped control the situation and work together with the concerned companies to move the tourists and locals to a safe place

LENS ASIA