"I believe I'm very lucky in this. I was working with Yuvi paaji [Yuvraj Singh] at first. Going forward, I had Brian Lara, who really helped me at SRH. Moving forward, Daniel Vettori was pretty simple, he just wanted everyone to express themselves, and I think that gave me the freedom to play my shots. So obviously, with Yuvraj Singh, Brian Lara, and even Gauti bhai right now, they just want me to showcase my talent the way I play and to back myself.”

Abhishek Sharma made his international debut for Team India back in July 2024 during a T20I series in Zimbabwe, shortly after the conclusion of the 2024 Men’s T20 World Cup. The youngster was included into the travelling squad following his explosive IPL 2024 season with the bat, where he bludgeoned 484 runs from 16 innings at an exceptional strike rate of 204.21.
