

The two men were suspected to have been hanged on the footover bridge after the beating of the robbe

After being injured by two persons in the north of the capital, the ropes were tied upside down after being injured.

The two men were suspected to have been hanged on the footover bridge after the beating of the robbeAfter being injured by two persons in the north of the capital, the ropes were tied upside down after being injured.

On receiving the news, police rushed to the spot and rescued the two men and admitted them to a local hospital. These people are Md. Nazim and Md. Bakul

The incident took place at around 7pm on the footoverbridge in front of the BNS Center in the Uttara House Building area. Asked about this, Uttara West Police Station Officer -in -Charge (OC) said. Hafizur Rahman said in the first light, two persons were hung upside down after being beaten on suspicion of robbing. Police later rescued them from the scene. Currently two are undergoing treatment,

A video of the incident has gone viral on social media Facebook. As seen in the video, several are raising one person. He has a rope tied in his leg. He was tied up with a yellow pillar of footoverbridge, wearing a yellow t-shirt. A few others were raising the man