Post-Eid return ticket sales to start on March 24

Each passenger will be allowed to purchase advance tickets only once, with a maximum of four seats

Each passenger will be allowed to purchase advance tickets only once, with a maximum of four seats Bangladesh Railway will begin selling advance tickets for post-Eid return train journeys on March 24.The information was shared by Bangladesh Railway Director General Md Afzal Hossain during an inter-ministerial meeting held at Bidyut Bhaban in Dhaka on Sunday afternoon.As in previous years, intercity train tickets will be sold under a special arrangement, with 100% of the tickets available online for the convenience of passengers.According to Bangladesh Railway's decision, advance ticket sales for intercity trains after Eid will be scheduled as Tickets for April 3 will be available on March 24

Tickets for April 4 will be available on March 2

Tickets for April 5 will be available on March 2

Tickets for April 6 will be available on March 2

Tickets for April 7 will be available on March 2

Tickets for April 8 will be available on March 2

Tickets for April 9 will be available on March 3

Additionally, based on moon sighting, tickets for March 31, April 1, and April 2 may also be sold Bangladesh Railway further announced that, upon passengers' request, 25% of the tickets will be available from the departure station before the journey begins. As in previous years, intercity train tickets will be sold under a special arrangement, with 100% of the tickets available online for the convenience of passengers.

According to Bangladesh Railway's decision, advance ticket sales for intercity trains after Eid will be scheduled as Each passenger will be allowed to purchase advance tickets only once, with a maximum of four seats.Furthermore, no tickets will be refunded.