The National Citizens Party (NCP) has decided not to field any candidate in the upcoming 12th national parliamentary elections in the constituency of BNP Chairperson Begum Khaleda Zia. The party's chief coordinator, Nasiruddin Patwary, confirmed the decision on Tuesday (4 November).

He stated that Begum Khaleda Zia is a historic figure in the country's politics. To honor her contributions and stature, the NCP has chosen to refrain from contesting in her constituency.

The party also announced that the names of eligible and popular candidates for the remaining constituencies will be announced soon.
