People have given blood for reform, mass uprising in the country: Nahid Islam

Nahid Islam, convenor of the Jatiya Citizens Party (NCP), alleged that many were trying to go to the polls by passing the reforms
He said that people gave blood to reform. And that is why the mass uprising in the country. If there is no change, then why did so many people come down the street and gave blood! The state's reform and fundamental change must be.

He said this while addressing the Iftar Mahfil organized at Vijay Sodh Square in the station market area of Sirajganj municipality on Friday evening.

Nahid was virtually added to the Iftar Mahfil organized by the NCP.

Nahid Islam said, "If we go to the polls without the trial of the wrongdoing, oppression and torture that has been going on in the July movement in the last 5 years, then we do not guarantee the reform process that will come after the election." So we want the existing law to be reformed and judged in a quick time. '
